Excerpt: . part ii. suggested treatment of the elements of welfare. topic I.--health. Approach to the topic.--In the introductory lessons the first thing to be fixed in the consciousness of the pupil is the importance of health. Each pupil should be led to see its importance to Mm, so that the entire class will deduce the fact that they have a common interest in the matter. By extension of the idea, it may be seen that health is a subject of common interest to the entire school and to the community as a whole. Also each pupil should be led to realize that, in this important matter of health, he is dependent upon the other members of the class and of the school and that the other members are likewise dependent upon him. The same interdependence exists in the community at large. This being true,...
