How do you mean that they produce unsaleable articles 1--I have recommended several of these hosiery merchants to start workrooms, and to get the people, to give them a pattern, and set them to work there; but they say that one woman will bring in a pair of stockings, and the next woman something very different, not of the same colour, or texture, or anything; and they have so much sorting that they are left with a lot of illwrought goods, and they have to provide against that by adopting the present system. That is the only excuse for it which they offer. 44. 333. I dont see why they should pay in goods for inferior articles cheaper rates than in money--But they have a greater profit to go and come upon. If an article is nominally put in to...
