By Patricia S. Topp

Blue Dolphin. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Olivia Monical (illustrator). Paperback. 78 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.2in. Those who tell time by The Wonderland Clock are just a bit different from other people. . . . On her twelfth birthday, Diana receives a special present from her Grandma: a dainty little wind-up clock. There was only one very curious problem: the little clock moved, very slowly, in the opposite direction. And even more mysterious, when Diana would nod off to sleep, The Wonderland Clock would strike a chime . . . and begin speaking to her in her dreams. Follow Diana as she weaves her way back in dream-time to discover new meanings to old, universal truths. Endorsements I am 11 years old and overall I thought it was a good book. I liked the plot and story-line and parts were funny (at least to me!). I liked the part about Scotty and Diana walking down the hallway and when Diana decided she would be herself and let Becky and Deb be themselves. It reminded me of a situation I had to deal with and the decision I made. Megan McGrath I am 70 years old and followed with great...
