Excerpt: . . . 9 to come up with a good report which recommended several changes to the 202 program. While the 2008 demonstration program in the 2008 budget did not make it through markup, HUDs staff has proposed guidance to break down many of these barriers that well discuss here today. We will continue this effort administratively and will take into se-rious consideration any sound proposal that eases the way to leveraging other sources of funding with 202 and to preserve and create more units. We value our partnership with the American Association of Homes and Services for the Aging and look forward to our con-tinuing work with them and other organizations to increase afford-able housing options for seniors. Again, thank you for the opportunity to be here today, and I wel-come any questions you may have. The prepared statement of Mr. Garvin can be found on page 67 of the appendix. Chairwoman W. Thank you very much, Mr. Garvin. ATERS We have been joined by...
