Hot Rod Hot Dogs is set in a restaurant in the town of Blakesville, California, circa 1958. The owner of the restaurant, Mimi Nawrocki, is in danger of losing her business if the drag strip across the street gets closed down by Mr. Benson, the corrupt deputy mayor of the town. Swenson has convinced Mayor Tyrone J. Meane that the town needs to convert the real estate currently being wasted by the drag strip into a new, much more lucrative, golf course. The kids who race at the strip would be forced to drag race in unsafe areas, such as in the streets of town or in the nearby desert. Betty Jean Dale, one of the teens that hang out at Hot Rod Hot Dogs, is very upset to hear that the strip and restaurant could be shut down. Betty Jeans father, Tom Dale, is the architect who designed the drag strip and got the town to approve it, against the deputy mayors wishes. Tom argues with Swenson and tries to convince the local police, headed by longtime...
